

Learn more at
<https://www.kaiciid.org/dialogue-knowledge-hub>

@KAICIID facebook.com/KAICIID

Write to us at
dkh@kaiciid.org

PEACE MAP

Use our interactive online map of the world to find out how diverse the work in the field of interreligious dialogue is. Our colourful Peace Map is a great tool to discover and learn more about different organizations, their histories and activities operating around the world promoting conflict resolution, development, education and upholding human rights.

PROMISING PRACTICES

The Promising Practices database offers direction and guidelines for the implementation of activities and projects centred on building bonds and creating solidarity in diverse communities. It offers a clear structure and outlines the resources necessary to implement specific activities. It also describes the focus and possible impact you could create in your community. The collection of Practices is supported with real case study examples from different contexts around the world.

DIALOGUE VOICES

Learn from some inspiring voices from all around the world involved in interreligious work as they reflect on their past experiences and current work in interreligious dialogue. Dialogue Voices presents a diverse, global mosaic of individuals and religious leaders' viewpoints on the importance of interreligious dialogue.

ONLINE COURSES

The DKH offers a three-credit bachelor degree course that can be offered at any academic institution as part of an ongoing collaboration with renowned universities such as the University of Montreal, the Complutense University of Madrid and the Institute for the Sciences of Religions in Barcelona. All of the course materials are accessible online and you can follow along from the comfort of your own home. The course is currently available in both French and English.

WHO'S WHO IN INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE DATABASE

Search through our online compendium which hosts the names and information of policymakers, teachers, trainers, activists, and religious leaders working in the field of interreligious dialogue. Use KAICIID's very own open source database of individuals to connect and expand your network!

STATEMENTS FOR PEACEFUL COEXISTENCE

Even when there is distrust, frustration and agony everywhere, some people are tirelessly trying to fix the situation by putting their voices out there in order to promote peace, coexistence and the prohibition of violence in the name of religion. Search through the collection of statements from religious leaders and institutions of the five major world religions and you will find positive and powerful statements made by some of the leading religious leaders.

ALMANAC OF CYCLICAL INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE EVENTS AND INTERFAITH CALENDARS

In this diverse and globalized world, keeping track of every faith's religious holidays can seem like a daunting task. Visit our Knowledge Hub and find a fun and interactive calendar with helpful information to keep you up to date.

WHAT IS THE DIALOGUE KNOWLEDGE HUB?

The Dialogue Knowledge Hub is the newest addition to KAICIID's virtual presence. This platform provides informative and educational services as well as networking opportunities for students of all backgrounds, educators at all levels, practitioners and leaders from all religious and spiritual communities, policymakers and researchers. In short: all persons, institutions, and/or organizations involved in interreligious dialogue or interested in learning about and practicing it. Do you want to learn more about the world of interreligious dialogue? Then take the journey and visit: <https://www.kaiciid.org/dialogue-knowledge-hub>.

WHY IS THE DIALOGUE KNOWLEDGE HUB UNIQUE?

Our Dialogue Knowledge Hub is the first of its kind to incorporate a wide offering of databases containing information such as a Peace Map of interreligious dialogue organizations, Promising Practices, Dialogue Voices, and a Who's Who in interreligious dialogue. Its diverse and balanced approach to gender, religious representation and geographical reach in terms of its data gathering methodology gives an additional value to the information displayed in this virtual space. Being the first of its kind to pull together this diversity of databases, it provides a stimulating source of knowledge and information for those who would like to explore and perhaps immerse themselves in the realm of interreligious dialogue.

- Our Peace Map contains hundreds of organizations from 6 continents

- 89% of the Who's Who entries are represented by five of the world's major religions

- 65% of Promising Practices come from Africa and Asia

- Our compilation of Dialogue Voices contains a gender makeup of 54% male, 46% female

- Participants of the online course are 60% male, 40% female

START THE JOURNEY HERE

I am...

A STUDENT OR AN EDUCATOR

A POLICYMAKER

A RELIGIOUS LEADER

AN IRD ACTIVIST

JUST CURIOUS

I'm actually wondering about individual actors.

Do you know how many organizations are working around the world to promote IRD?

I've often wondered that!

Do you know what percentage of those organizations work in peacebuilding and conflict resolution?

In our field, that is worth knowing!

Do you want to discover active organizations on the national level?

That would be great!

How familiar are you with individual actors in IRD?

I want to get to know someone!

Do you want to discover active IRD experts and activists in your area?

Yes, I do!

Would you like to expand your network of contacts in IRD?

Definitely, contacts are always a privilege!

Do you want to know what motivates others to work in IRD?

Yes, tell me more!

Do you want to discover active IRD experts and activists in your area?

Yes, I would love to.

Do you want to hear about real experiences and inspiring stories from the field?

I'd love to hear real stories from the field.

I'd love to know what they have to say

Do you know where I could meet them?

Are you looking for the next IRD event?

I'm interested in attending one.

Would you like to learn about different religious holidays?

Absolutely, it's always good to be aware of that!

Are you looking for positive and powerful statements of peace from religious leaders and experts?

Most definitely!

I'm interested in attending one.

Actually, I want to plan an event!

Are you interested in hearing voices of people tirelessly working to decrease violence and increase coexistence?

Yes, please!

Would you like an encouraging quote to share with your colleagues?

That would be fun!

Do you like group sports or art events?

I'm interested in planning one.

Need an innovative idea for a community event which fosters peace and dialogue?

Yes, I would like to create a greater social impact in my community.

Would you like to raise a fundraising action in your community?

Yes, I want to be creative!

Are you looking to expand your knowledge in the field of IRD?

I'd love to learn more!

Do you want to learn from well-known scholars in religious studies?

Yes, that would be a great opportunity.

Are you ready to invest more time in your quest for knowledge?

Yes, I am very committed!

