COURSE DESCRIPTION

In a highly polarised world where there are competing ideologies, values and embedded power imbalances, some decisions may be taken with finite knowledge and influenced by specific cultural and historical contexts and subjective narratives.

Only dialogue, in its various forms and at its different levels, can help to recognise differences, develop shared meanings and seek understanding in order to work together towards a more just and humane world.

This DKH short course provides an overview of the conceptual landscape of dialogue and familiarises the learner with the general arguments that propose best practices for engagement in dialogue. Participants then use this newly learned landscape of dialogue as a lens to take a closer look at the ethics of dialogue.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This course is specifically designed for today's global leaders, including policymakers, UN agencies and religious leaders and institutions.

ABOUT DKH SHORT COURSES

The practice of using interreligious dialogue (IRD) for building social cohesion, peace and reconciliation is rapidly emerging as a necessary tool for the twenty-first century education tool-box.

KAICIID online courses build the capacities of global leaders to address a number of today's most pressing challenges by using interreligious dialogue to establish ethical policymaking frameworks, support peace processes, and address discrimination and Religiophobia at the national and local levels. The courses are part of an ongoing collaboration with renowned universities such as the University of Montreal, the Complutense University of Madrid and the Institute for the Sciences and Religions in Barcelona.

METHODOLOGY

Building on DKH's popular 8 module course, busy professionals can now select the individual modules they need most and learn-on-the go! Administered through a Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) platform, the short course takes approximately one week to complete and can be taken anywhere, anytime, at your own pace, from your phone or computer.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

• Best practices for dialogue encounters
• Dialogue as a tool for emancipation
• The core practical ethos which underpins each dialogue encounter.
